

Are you interested in becoming a member of the Down Syndrome NSW Advisory Panel?

This information is to help you decide whether you might like to be a member of the Down Syndrome NSW Advisory Panel.

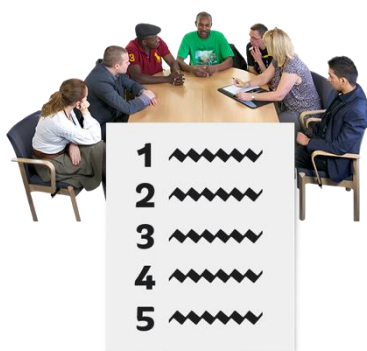

You can ask for help to read this information.

The Panel has meetings to discuss issues important to DS NSW and people with Down syndrome. The panel will help DS NSW decide what to do about certain issues.

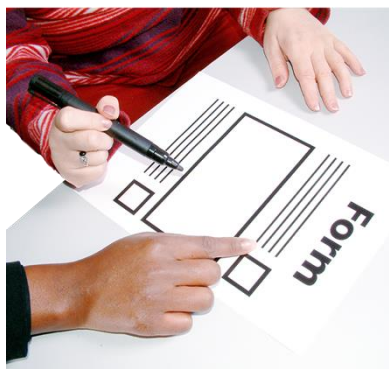

If you become a Panel member you will get a support person if you need one to help you understand the issues and talk about your thoughts.

If you live in Sydney you will attend meetings in person.

If you live far away from Sydney you can attend most meeting on the phone or skype (video call). You can attend some meetings in person in Sydney. You will get help to do this.

Who can become a member?

Are you aged 18 and over?

Do you have Down Syndrome?

Are you interested in having a say on things that are important to people with Down syndrome?

Do you want to help other people with Down syndrome?

Do you want to meet new people and learn things like being on a committee, having meetings, learning leadership skills?

Can you take part in regular meetings?

If your answer to all these questions is yes and you are interested in being on the Down Syndrome NSW Advisory Panel, please fill in the Application Form on the next page.

You can ask for help to fill out the form. You can contact DS NSW if you have any questions.

Note: if you are a staff member of DSA NSW you are not able to join the Panel.
