

THE Congratulations INITIATIVE.

At Down Syndrome NSW, we offer information and support at every stage and respect the choice of all families. Our Congratulations Initiative nurtures and supports parents who have a pre-natal/post-natal diagnosis that their baby has Down syndrome. We also partner with Health Professionals and provide factual and up to date information about Down syndrome to assist them in their care of families.

OUR SUPPORT FOR FAMILIES AND HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

PRENATAL

Are you an expectant parent with a diagnosis (confirmed or unconfirmed)? We have a range of information on prenatal testing, facts about Down syndrome, and gifts designed to nurture yourself.

WELCOMING A NEW BUB

Are you soon to welcome or have welcomed a new bub with Down syndrome? Congratulations! We proudly offer free welcome kits filled with information about Down syndrome, growth charts, NDIS, early intervention, breastfeeding and gifts. We also offer phone calls and visits to warmly welcome you to our community.

MEDICAL PROFESSIONAL

Are you a social worker, doctor, midwife, obstetrician, nurse, pediatrician or other medical professional? Or do you know someone that would benefit from this information? We offer free information packs with prenatal testing information, fact sheets about Down syndrome, NDIS information, early education services, breastfeeding, growth charts and more.
